In the lobby of the Hoffman House the other night I introduced a well-known newspaper friend to "Mr. Thompson of Kentucky." Mr. Thompson was just hurrying out to accompany a friend to the theatre, and my friend and I passed on toward the desk. There, talking to one of the clerks, was "Mr. Thompson of Ken-To be sure, he had just passed out of the front door, but here he stood, nevertheless. My friend turned involun tarily to see if the gentleman I had intro-duced to him had decided not to go to the play, and when I again presented to him "Mr. Thompson of Kentucky" he held out his hand at once and said: "Well, it's bet-ANALOSTAN ISLAND

The latest romance about Alexander, late of Bulgaria, is that while he was being King there he was always attended by a tall and handsome jager, who never left him for a moment and who on several occasions interposed between him and danger at great present risk. At nights the jager slept in the ante-room of the royal cham-ber, and at least one plot to assassinate the Prince is said to have been thus frustrated.

After the Prince left Bulgaria the jager disappeared, and it has since been discovered that the person was a woman who vas desperately in love with the Prince and had sworn to protect him.

The Canary Among Sparrows. At Macon, Ga., the other morning a man named Sparks saw a flock of English sparrows feeding in their energetic, nervous way. In smong them was a pretty caunry. The sparrows seemed to be paying a good deal of attention to the little stranger, and seemed to be taking especial care of him. He concluded to capture him, and walking oward the flock, the sparrows all flew away and the canary remained quietly eating. He walked closer, and, holding out his hand, called to him and he hopped on it, seemingly glad to hear a human voice. The

"In the Soup."

That more or less popular phrase, "In the soup," it may not be generally known, has long been in use in different forms among the Germans. For instance: "Der sitzt in der bruhe ("be sits in the soup") "Er hat sich eine schone suppe einge brockt" (he has made a nice soup for himself," meaning he has put himself in a "bad fix"), and "Er muss die eingebrockte suppe selbst essen" ("he must eat the soup he has cooked himself").

THE WORKHOUSE MANAGEMENT. An Investigation Will Be Conducted By Commissioner Wheatley.

"Faith, an' Ole won't go out there again!" Patrick Mahoney, a ragged old frishman who had all of his teeth shot out in a battle down in Virginia, and was also lame in his left leg, applied for assistance this morning, and when Dr. Tindall suggested that he go to the Washington Asygested that he go to the Washington Asylum that is what he answered. He said that he had been in Libby prison during the war and fared as roughly as any one there, but it wasn't a circumstance to the treatment he received at the farm. He had only been out a week, and rather than go back he declares he will drop on the streets or die in the gutter. Nothing could be done for him, so he hobbled down the long winding stairs and out into the streets winding stairs and out into the streets again.

It has been decided by the Commissioners to make an investigation. Mr. Wheatley will have charge of it and is now busy arranging the preliminaries, such as finding witnesses and arranging the programme. McGuiger will come before them at any time they may designate and swear to the charges in any form they may wish. He says he is anxious to do so, and Mr. Stoutenburgh is quite as much so. The latter was among the first callers at the District Buildings this morning and had half an hour's interview with Commissioner Wheatley. As he was leaving he said to a Carric reporter that he was ready at any time to appear and defend himself and his wife against any charges, he cared not what they might be, which were brought against them.

Destruction at Norfolk.

A evelope visited Norfolk on Saturday night. High tide yesterday was 18 inches higher than was ever before recorded. The lower part of the city was flooded, and fire broke out on Water street, caused from stacking lime or the wharf of John O. Gamsge & Soo. The entire block, with the cyception of the premises of Savage, Son & Co., commission merchants, was in flames. The old Cotton Exchange building and the warehouse of J. W. Perry & Co. were totally destroyed. Santon & Bro., coal totally destroyed. Santon & Bro., confidentially, Bachelder & Collins, coal, lumber and lime, are damaged to the amount of $4,000. John A. Gamage's loss, including building, is $10,000.

During the storm the roofs of the Opera-House, Masonic Temple and many dwellings were torn off, and the Virginia Beach Rallroad depot is badly injured.

In Portsmouth firs destroyed the lime and lumber yard of Trugle & Hill. The United States ship Pensacola sank in dry dock on Saturday night, where she was being repaired for sea. Har sea valves had been opened for inspection and another one was being cut. The tide flooded the dock and she filled with water, and getting off her keel sank before she could be gotten in position again. A diver will have to be sent down and her valves stopped up, and the ship pumped out. The Simpson dry dock was flooded, and the damage may reach $40,000. The wires along the coast are all down.

She Might Marry Yet.

In the Chicago courts some time since Sorosia S. Alexander was awarded $10,000 and $1,000 per year for taking care of her parents, the award being against the estate of her brother, who, during his life, had promised her this money, if she would give up her work and her prospect of marriage and care for their parents. The $10.000 was specially promised as a compensation for shaking her lover. Now the courts have decided that, as she may marry yet, she is not entitled to the $10,000 while her parents live, but have ordered the $1,000 per year paid out of the estate.

Indigestion

IS not only a distressing complaint, of itself, but, by causing the blood to become deprayed and the system enfeebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies. That Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for Indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway

from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich.;—

"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed ne, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayor's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wone-rful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions. I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."
